Meet The Tripman

Your favorite driver on social media turning every trip into a viral karaoke night under the party lights with goofy glasses.

How It ALLLLLLL Started

In a galaxy far far away... there was a man who loved connecting with random strangers through karaoke, Latin dances, and the kind of conversations you remember forever. He loved it so much that a spark lit inside him. A spark that said “These moments are meant to be shared!”

So he found the easiest way to bring people into his world — rideshare apps. He started surprising passengers with party lights, karaoke mics, and unexpected vibes that turned regular rides into little pieces of magic.

Then he posted one video. Just one. The very first Instagram clip went viral — and everything changed.
